Case No. 3:21-cv-00976

1 On April 19, 2021, this Court entered an order staying this action for sixty days or until the 2 court in Zanca v. Epic Games, Inc., No. 21-CVS-534 (N.C. Sup. Ct., Wake County) grants or denies
3 final approval to a class action settlement proposed in that case, whichever is earlier. (Dkt. 36 at 1-4 2). The stay order directed the parties to file a joint status report in the event that the Zanca court 5 has not made a ruling on the settlement within sixty days of the date of its order.

6 The status of the Zanca case is as follows. The Zanca court held a final fairness hearing on 7 May 6, 2021, during which it considered a motion for final approval of the settlement filed by the 8 Zanca plaintiffs and objections to the settlement lodged by Plaintiffs in this case together with 9 another minor Fortnite player (collectively, “Objectors”). At the conclusion of the final fairness
10 hearing, the Zanca court took the motion and objections under advisement. The Zanca court later 11 requested proposed orders from the Zanca plaintiffs and Objectors, which those parties provided.
12 On May 18, 2021, Objectors filed a motion that seeks an order requiring the disclosure of certain 13 documents the Zanca plaintiffs’ counsel submitted to the Zanca court in camera, which motion
14 remains pending. The Zanca court has not yet granted or denied final approval to the proposed 15 settlement.

16 Epic Games suggests that the stay be continued for thirty days or until the Zanca court grants 17 or denies final approval to the proposed settlement, whichever is earlier, and that the parties file a 18 second joint status report if the Zanca court has not granted or denied final approval within thirty 19 days. Because they maintain their arguments in opposition to staying the case as an initial matter, 20 Plaintiffs take no position on Epic Games' suggestion.
